

Summer Theater at Bay Farm

June 20 – August 12, 2017

Tuesdays and Thursdays

3:30–6:30pm

DreamWorks' Madagascar JR at Bay Farm

Step into the spotlight this summer in DreamWorks' Madagascar JR! Based on the classic DreamWorks animated film, Madagascar JR features many colorful characters and favorite songs from the endearing movie. This show offers dynamic, diverse, and comedic roles for a wide range of students with enchanting music and engaging songs.

Bay Farm's Summer Theater program is a wonderful opportunity for students of all skill levels entering grades 1-8 to learn a variety of theater skills, from acting and singing, to set and costume design and many aspects of back-stage production. Children will be involved in a full theatrical production, complete with costumes, sets, musical numbers, and choreography. They will be introduced to the basics of theater production while gaining confidence and poise. Families will be invited to attend the one-hour performances held during the last week of the summer theater session.

Instructors

Bay Farm's Summer Theater is taught by Bay Farm's drama teacher, Karen Howland, and music teacher, Michelle Booth. Both bring years of theatrical and music experience to this wonderful program.

Karen has been a member of the creative arts staff at Bay Farm since 1990. She attended the Boston Conservatory of Music and the Royal Academy of Ballet in London, England. She has a B.A. in Human Development and a Master of Education in Creative Arts in Learning from Lesley University. Karen directs over 30 school productions a year and teaches every child at Bay Farm. She loves to share her love for history and the arts with her students when preparing for plays. She strongly feels that the arts promote positive self-esteem and enhance learning.

Michelle, who began playing the piano at age five, has been the music teacher at Bay Farm since 1995. She has been a piano accompanist to many theater productions over the years and has been teaching piano lessons since graduating from college. She has been the musical director for numerous Bay Farm musical productions, including Willy Wonka, Cinderella, Fiddler on the Roof Jr., Annie Jr., and many more. She obtained her BA from Wheaton College where she double majored in Anthropology and Music. She has a Piano Performance Minor Certificate of Arts from Jagiellonian University in Krakow, Poland.

About Bay Farm Montessori Academy

Bay Farm Montessori Academy (www.bfarm.org) is an independent, coeducational day school offering programs rooted in the work of Maria Montessori for students from 12 months through 14 years (8th grade). Located in Duxbury, MA, Bay Farm is one of the South Shore's oldest and largest Montessori schools with students from more than a dozen different towns. Through studies in a broad array of areas and a curriculum integrated with visual and performing arts, students develop the skills and experience to emerge as self-confident learners and leaders.
