This spring, Bay Farm will present the Broadway adaptation of The Lion King Jr. The one hour shows are also the perfect match for our younger audiences. As a bonus, this particular Jr. show comes with amazing media presentation about the creation of the Broadway production. Our production of The Lion King Jr. will combine the art of puppetry as part of some of the characters. Be prepared to see gazelles, zebras, lions, and other jungle animals come through the audience. The play is filled with musical numbers that are perfect for our Bay Farm students and will give them the opportunity to learn choreography, musical numbers and lines. The older students participate in changing the sets and assist each other with costume changes. Students will have fun while building performing arts skills and confidence. All of our productions are based on the premise of teamwork. Younger children will act in group scenes during the play.

It is vital that all of our performers attend the rehearsals and performances. Saturday rehearsals are critical to the success of the production. Saturday rehearsals are not optional. Please enter these dates in your daily planner. Children who are not able to make all rehearsals may have their parts reduced. Fees includes, scripts, classes, cast party, t-shirt and two complimentary tickets per child for each performance.
